Memo No. Ch-51/HPG/Genl./509/Vol-II

Dated: 06.02.2026

Subject: Re- raise Objections by the AEE/Electrical and XEN/electrical for the ongoing online transfer drive under HPGCL Online Transfer Policy 2025.

Reference: - This office memo no. Ch- 50/HPG/Genl/509/Vol-II Dated:22.01.2026 vide which the objections regarding Score and tenure details were sought from XEN/Electrical and AEE/Electrical.

In this regard, it is informed that the objections submitted by the officers on ETMS Portal and through emails, have been addressed as per the office record and as per the provisions of HPGCL Online Transfer Policy 2025 issued vide office order no. 403/HPG/GE-623 dated 15.09.2025 with subsequent amendment issued vide office order no. 426/HPG/GE-623 dated 08.10.2025 and 542/HPG/GE-623 dated 30.12.2025. In cases, where the objections were found to be genuine, the records of the concerned officers have been duly updated on the ETMS Portal.

The concerned officers can view their updated Score and tenure details by logging into ETMS Portal under Employee Detail report. In case, any officer who had raised objection upto 29.01.2026, is still not satisfied with the decision/action, so taken, may again raise objection upto 10.02.2026 (05:00 PM) as per the schedule, by logging into ETMS portal under Re-Raise objections tab in Objection report. On re-examination of the objection, the decision of the Competent Authority will be final. No further representation with respect to score and tenure will be entertained for the respective drives, after this stage.

It is also pertinent to mention that as per the transfer policy, if it comes to the notice of the Competent Authority, during or after the transfer drive, that some wrong, incorrect or false data has been indicated by the employee, she/he will be taken out of transfer drive and will be posted anywhere in HPGCL by the Competent Authority.

This is for your kind information and further necessary action, please.
